

As Christmas approaches, I share my appreciation to the entire Visitation Academy community.

I am proud of our students and graduates and of the many ways our community embodies the mission of Visitation.

I am thankful for the goodness you spread and wish you the gift of faith and blessings of hope and joy this holiday season.

Warmly,
Jean Bernieri

